

LEARN ENGAGE CREATE

WVFEC Fall Training

Event Highlights

This fall, the West Virginia Family Engagement Center and the Martinsburg Initiative are bringing together individuals from across the Eastern Panhandle for an interactive training focused on building and strengthening connections between families, schools, and communities!

This dynamic, in-person event provides a forum for you to:

- Collaborate with educators,
- Explore best practices,
- Gain insights from the field, and,
- Co-create actionable solutions to strengthen school-family-community partnerships.

Whether you're looking to expand your knowledge, spark new ideas, or build lasting connections—you won't want to miss this! Let's learn, engage, and create.
